

For Immediate Release

For Information:

Angie Kohl

PHONE: 843-546-5837

EMAIL: info@kidschancesc.org

Fluor Daniel Hosts Annual Barbeque and Bluegrass Event for Kids' Chance of South Carolina

[South Carolina, February 18, 2013] – Fluor Daniel hosted the annual Barbeque and Bluegrass event benefiting Kids' Chance of South Carolina at their Management Facility in Greenville, South Carolina on February 8, 2013.

Hundreds of people gathered for the entertainment provided by Last Road Bluegrass Band and enjoyed the delicious food provided by Henry's Smokehouse. The event raised over $20,000 which will support the scholarships awarded annually by Kids' Chance of South Carolina.

(Pictured left to right: Joe Miller, Patty Miller, Anna Miller, and Skip Francis)

About Kids' Chance of South Carolina

Kids' Chance of South Carolina, Inc. is a nonprofit corporation developed in 1992 by the S.C. Workers' Compensation Educational Association. Its purpose is to provide financial scholarships for dependents of seriously injured or deceased workers to complete their education. To learn more about Kids' Chance of South Carolina, please visit our website follow us on Facebook and Twitter. You may also CLICK HERE to sign up to receive important information and announcements.